Paul R. Croll, CSC

A thirty-year software engineering veteran, Mr. Croll is the Chair of the IEEE Software Engineering Standards Committee (SESC), founder and Chair of the IEEE Software Engineering Standards Users Group (SESUG), Vice Chair of the ISO/IEC JTC1 SC7 US TAG, and Convener of ISO/IEC JTC1/SC7 Working Group 9, Systems Integrity. Mr. Croll is also actively involved with other closely allied professional organizations. He is past Chair of the GEIA Software Committee; is the IEEE Computer Society representative to the NDIA's Systems Engineering Committee; is a member of the Advisory Board for the Project Management Institute's Risk Management SIG; and is an Associate Editor of the ASQ's Software Quality Professional journal. Mr. Croll was also a key member of the IEEE 1540 Working Group.

Mr. Croll is currently Manager, Organizational Processes, for CSC's Air and Missile Defense operation in King George, VA, where he is responsible for process engineering, quality management, and standardization activities. Mr. Croll also sits on the NSWCDD Aegis SEPG, is a member of the OSD Software Evaluation and Software Assessments IPTs (DUSD S&T), and is a member of the CMMI^{SM} CCB and Assessment Methods Expert Group (AMEG) .