Dave Morris is a senior software engineer with Independent Engineering, Inc. He has over eighteen-years experience in software engineering. Including Windows product development, web design, and large-scale system test and evaluation.

Mr. Morris is currently supporting specification, design, and implementation of the Practical Software and Systems Measurement (PSM) Insight metrics analysis tool for the Army Software Metrics Office.

Mr. Morris received an MIS from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University and a BS in Mathematics from Mary Washington College.