

Who Is Tom Conrad?

- The last person who could truthfully claim to have worked on every digital submarine combat system ever put to sea by the US Navy.
- The senior computer scientist in the US Navy at the time of his retirement.
- A man selected as a Branch Head, Division Head, Department Head, Lead System Engineer, and Department Director of Science and Technology.
- One who turned down an SES Department Head job and a doctoral degree from an Ivy League college.
- One with papers published in Russian.

Who Is Tom Conrad?

- One with nearly a million frequent flier miles. And that many people refuse to fly with.
- One who has sat down to private dinners with national news correspondents, civil rights activists, Supreme Court justices, even the developer of LSD.
- One who has been interviewed live for the CBS Evening News.
- One who has been to Death's Door at least four times, knocked loudly, but escaped to live another day.

Who Is He Really?

Who Is He Really?

- A man who made a difference every day ...
- Doing it the right way ...
- And most significantly - one who inspired everyone around him to do the same

Who Is He Really?

- A man who made a difference every day ...
- Doing it the right way ...
- And most significantly - one who inspired everyone around him to do the same
- And of course:

He is the “Godfather” of Practical Software and Systems Measurement
